

XV. Wilt thou unkind thus reave me of my heart

The First Book of Songs or Ayres
 Text: Anonymous

John Dowland (1563-1626)
 ed. Daniel Thomson

CANTUS [Soprano]

1. Wilt thou un-kind thus reave me Of my heart, of my heart,
 2. Hope by dis-dain grows cheer-less, Fear doth love, love doth fear,
 3. If no de-lays can move thee, Life shall die, death shall live

ALTUS [Alto]

1. Wilt thou un-kind, un-kind thus reave me Of my heart, of my
 2. Hope by dis-dain, dis-dain grows cheer-less, Fear doth love, love doth
 3. If no de-lays, de-lays can move thee, Life shall die, death shall

TENOR [Tenor]

1. Wilt thou un-kind thus reave me Of my heart, of my heart, of my
 2. Hope by dis-dain grows cheer-less, Fear doth love, love doth fear, love doth
 3. If no de-lays can move thee, Life shall die, death shall live, death shall

BASSUS [Bass]

1. Wilt thou un-kind thus reave me Of my heart, of my
 2. Hope by dis-dain grows cheer-less, Fear doth love, love doth
 3. If no de-lays can move thee, Life shall die, death shall

LUTE

3

1. 2.

S. and so leave me, and so leave me? so leave me? Fare - beau-ty peer-less, beau-ty peer-less. -ty peer-less. Fare - still to love thee, still to love thee. to love thee. Fare -

A. heart, and so leave me? leave me? Fare-well, fear, beau-ty peer, less. peer less. Fare-well,
 live still to love thee. love thee. Fare well,

T. heart, and so leave me, and so leave me? so leave me? Fare-well, fear, beau-ty peer-less, beau-ty peer-less. ty peer-less. Fare-well, live still to love thee, still to love thee. to love thee. Fare-well,

B. heart, and so leave me? leave me? Fare-well,
 fear, beau-ty peer-less. peer less. Fare-well,
 live still to love thee. love thee. Fare-well,

Lute